AN OASIS BY THE ANDAMAN

Ranked no.8 in the Top 25 Hotels in Thailand of Travelers' Choice 2013 listed by Trip Advisor, Casa de La Flora offers a fabulous stay coupled with memorable services and facilities.

On the palm-fringed beach of Khao Lak, just one-hour's drive from Phuket International Airport, Casa de La Flora is a new resort welcoming discerning guests with the chance to explore the exotic Andaman sea whilst surrounded by classy contemporarily designed abodes and comfort in every dimension.

The resort is the first and only modernist hideaway in Khao Lak, presenting a unique style of accommodation. Guests could not be blamed for never wanting to leave their rooms, as they are designed for you to enjoy and indulge yourself in privacy. Created in a low density cutting-edge design, the resort features 36 slate-grey cube villas which are varied in eight categories, from studio pool villas, duplex pool suites, duplex grand pools, beachfront pool villas, beachfront suite pool villas, beachfront grand pool villas, Casa pool suites and a Casa presidential suite. Each villa is equipped with a plush bedroom and commodious living space amidst lush greenery, while some boast capturing sea views. If you have a preference in mind already – sunset views, cosy tropical garden or glistening sea, just tell the resort and you will get what you need. All types of villa are secluded from each other so that you can fully relax during your stay in peace and serenity.

For ultimate comfort, every room features a king-sized bed and complimentary facilities including a flat screen TV, iPod docking station, free espresso, regularly replenished mini-bar, Wi-Fi Internet access and more. The resort gives more pleasurable sleeping experience with a selection of pillows including anti-snore, white goose down, contour and bolster.

Once you've explored your room, don't miss the other facilities offered at the resort. Casa de La Flora understands guests who want to keep fit and firm during their vacation so it houses a fine fitness centre within its grounds. There, guests can take some time energising their body, strengthening their muscles and releasing adrenaline on a wide range of equipment, such as free weights and treadmills. To complement a healthy stay, the resort is home to an infinity edge swimming pool. What makes it even more special than other resorts is that it uses chemical-free water, and a specialist water treatment system is employed to keep it squeaky clean. Casa de La Flora, conscious of hygiene and cleanliness, provides the utmost healthy experience. Guests can also visit Spa la Casa whenever they need to relax. Comprising four treatment rooms and a variety of treatment menus, the spa helps bring back your inner balance with indigenous herbs and premium products.

These refined offerings are just a part of an impeccable getaway. Dining is also important, and the resort knows this. At La Aranya Restaurant, which is the main dining outlet at the property, chefs serve international dishes with a Thai twist. Menus are crafted with the use of premium ingredients. If you are looking for a lovely restaurant, flavoursome treats and dining amid a relaxing ambience next to a private beach, Casa de La Flora has all of these qualities. Whether during the day or night, do not forget to visit the Pool Bar to sip your favourite tropical juices, smoothies and cocktails.

For one thing, Casa de La Flora stands out from other similar types of resort with its special 'tailor-made experience.' This exclusive service is specially created for any need, such as a romantic dinner by the beach, exploring local markets, cruising the Andaman or an excursion through the unspoiled wild river of Khao Lak. The resort's team can definitely fulfil the holiday you dream of. ☺
