Singapore
2-4 October 2013

World Architecture Festival (WAF) is the world's largest, live, inclusive and interactive global architecture event which the 2013 festival will take place between October 2 - 4 at the Marina Bay Sands, Singapore.

Casa de La Flora is pleased to be shortlisted for World Architecture Festival 2013 awards in the Hotel & Leisure category. Big congrats go to VaSLab Architecture, the dynamic, young Thai design firm who were commissioned to oversee the transformation of the owner's vision into a reality.

Casa de La Flora is a member of Design Hotels, located directly on the beautiful beach of Khao Lak in Thailand. We are the first modernist hideaway amid the tropical nature in Khao Lak, presenting cutting-edge architecture with minimalist interior design. All 36 private pool villas and suites offer a range of modern comforts for design and luxury lovers. Each villa is designed to allow guests to experience the environment from inside out, with large glass facades that widen the perspective when looking out to the cerulean ocean.
